

PACIFIC CREST MUSIC festival

2025 Tuition Breakdown

Tuition - $1,100

Room & Board - $900

Total - $2000

Tuition covers full participation in all activities during the festival. These activities include, and are not limited to, private lessons, chamber coachings, public performances, master classes, and possible solo opportunities (based on audition).

Room and Board fees cover all housing costs, three meals per day plus snacks, and all transportation during the festival. Transportation to and from the festival is not covered by PCMF.

Scholarships: Each year, many of our students receive financial support from the festival and our sponsors. Scholarships may be awarded for both financial need and merit. Students are automatically considered for merit-based scholarships during the audition review process. To inquire about financial need scholarships, please contact the festival directly at pacificcrestmusic@gmail.com.
